

Assumption Life

Over 123 Years of Commitment and Excellence

Since 1903, Assumption Life has been founded on strong mutualist principles, with our clients and communities at the very core of all we do.

Proudly rooted in Atlantic Canada, we have built a legacy of trust, serving Canadian families for more than 123 years.

Today, our company is now one of the leading mutual life insurance and financial services providers in the country.

Recognized for the quality of our products, the strength of our performance, and our personalized service, Assumption Life serves thousands of clients across the country.

We offer simple and accessible solutions in individual insurance, investments and retirement, group insurance, as well as group savings and retirement plans.

Financial Strength

Assumption Life achieved a remarkable year in 2025, marked by record sales, strong financial results, and strategic initiatives that further strengthened its industry position, providing lasting security and peace of mind to our clients.
