Additional Information

Revocable or Irrevocable designation:

1. Unless otherwise stipulated or not permitted by law, all beneficiary designation is revocable.
2. If a beneficiary is designated irrevocable, his/her consent is required for any request that may affect his/her rights, including a change of beneficiary.
3. In Quebec, the designation of the owner's married or civil union spouse as beneficiary is irrevocable, unless otherwise stipulated.

Insurance proceeds will be payable in the following order:

1. To all designated primary beneficiaries who survive the insured, in equal shares, unless a percentage (%) is stated;
2. To all designated contingent beneficiaries who survive the insured (if no primary beneficiary survives the insured), in equal shares, unless a percentage (%) is stated; or
3. To the owner or his estate (if no contingent beneficiary survives the Insured).

In the case of a deceased beneficiary:

1. The equal share of a deceased beneficiary (primary or contingent, as the case may be) will be divided between the surviving beneficiaries (of the same category); and
2. The percentage (%) of the share of a deceased beneficiary (primary or contingent, as the case may be), will be payable to the owner or his estate.
